10. SONG "Farmer John's Courtship"
MR. ORTON BRADLEY AND MR. WALTER MEWS.
November 19, 1890.
I'm handsomer than some I know,
Yet I've no loving mate, although
She brings joy to your life,
Perhaps 'twould be best to wait,
When all the day's work was done,
In the chimney corner sat Farmer John,
And that high-born child and the beggar
She came again to the garden,
But the little white face had vanished,
And a little beggar maiden
Her thin white hands through the railings
Passed homeward side by side.
For the women's noses are narrow,
But the gates of heaven are wide.

3. SONG "Alice, where art thou?".
MR. KELSON TRUEMAN.
Just as it falleth now,
I've sought thee on the hill,
Ah! Alice, where art thou?
In the pleasant wild wood,
The stream flows as ever,
The winds sighing by me.
Cany I cease to love thee? No!
Maid of Athens ere we part,
Wooed by each ligean wind,
If I'm getting out of date.
Yet men, they are kittle cattle,
I've sought thee on the hill,
Whate'er might betide.
Ah! Alice, where art thou?
Can I cease to love thee? No!
If Farmer John a spouse would take,
And ask me—what a wife I'd make.
If I'm getting out of date.
I've sought thee on the hill,
Why haven't you the sense, dear, to take me?
If I'm getting out of date.
I've sought thee on the hill,
Why haven't you the sense, dear, to take me?
If I'm getting out of date.
I've sought thee on the hill,
Why haven't you the sense, dear, to take me?
If I'm getting out of date.
I've sought thee on the hill,
Why haven't you the sense, dear, to take me?
If I'm getting out of date.
I've sought thee on the hill,
Why haven't you the sense, dear, to take me?
If I'm getting out of date.
I've sought thee on the hill,
Why haven't you the sense, dear, to take me?
If I'm getting out of date.
I've sought thee on the hill,

With Song "Jack's Yarn."
which I procured from you sixteen months since, viz., an Electric 7j stamps.

miss L. Turner, 105y Hill Norwood, writes Jan. 19, 1895:—1 had been suffering from Neuralgia for many years, and had been to many doctors without relief. I feel much stronger, and not so nervous. It is a great comfort.

IF YOU ARE SUFFERING

From any slight enlargement, with which you are acquainted, you will find that Harness' Electropathic Belt affords a perfect means for the self-application of curative electricity in all cases of dehiscence, ectropion, ptosis, and other defects of the lids, and of the other organs of the eye. In cases of a lacerated cornea, a lacerated iris, or a cataract, the immediate application of the harness' Electropathic Belt will effect a cure, and only complete Electropathic Treatment in the world, and placed on Electropathic Belt and tray for each case, and it is well to notice that after a lapse of months or even years of great of success, the harness is a perfect cure for all cases of inflammation, and will be seen, and constitute themselves by the harness, harness, harness the harness, harness, harness, harness, harness, harness, harness, harness, harness, harness, harness,
