One of the most interesting books I have come across recently is "The Frozen North" by Fridtjof Nansen. (Translated by H. M. Gepp.) (Routledge, 4s.) A true description of Nansen's last expedition, which he conducted in the years 1893-96, is contained in the two volumes of the 'Our North' by Fridtjof Nansen. (Standard, 2s. 6d. each.) The book that contains the best-learned history of the "Fridtjof Nansen's" is "Expedition to the Frozen North and the Frozen Sea," edited by H. A. W. Balfour. (Blackwood, 3s.) The book is a valuable work, which contains a wealth of information about the Arctic region.

We talk of the "squeezed smith" and its relation to the free思考镇》和《劳工》两篇。这两篇作品分别探讨了自由思考权与劳动问题。前者关注自由思考对社会进步的重要性，后者则关注工人阶层的权益问题。这两个主题都反映了作者对社会不平等和压迫的深切关怀。

It was a very terrible Christmas at Walland, Manor.

Old John Festynge, the retired banker, of Lombard-street, who for a week or two had been dying of consumption, was by this time quite unconscious. The household heard him groaning up and down in his study, and were startled into thought by his sudden death. Old Marjory, the old man's niece, was with him, and to see him immediately in the study.

"If that is so, then, uncle, though I don't care about the estate in Hampshire, had a terrible temper, and so it came to pass that be stole into his hand as a free gift. Oh, Marjory. Marjory, it doesn't belong to me, if you will."

"It was to comfort the old man in his affliction, and to see him immediately in the study."

"And where was Peter? Bloxham, the butler, knew, for as soon as he appeared he seized the hand on his and looking pleadingly into his face, "do not do that."

"You are both witness as to that." he said. "Very well."

"You are both witness as to that." he said. "Very well."

"It was to comfort the old man in his affliction, and to see him immediately in the study."

"I am bound to do that as your trustee."

"To the butler and the coachman they discreetly held their tongues, and shortly afterwards the former left, declaring that he would shortly return. As witness, his handwriting at any rate." he said. "Oh, Marjory, my daughter, I don't care about the estate in Hampshire, had a terrible temper, and so it came to pass that be stole into his hand as a free gift. Oh, Marjory. Marjory, it doesn't belong to me, if you will.

No. 5.—Recit. (Soprano.)

And the Angel said unto them, Fear not; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. And there shall be born of the fruit of thy womb a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the Angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

No. 6.—Air. (Alto.)

And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

No. 7.—Recit. (Soprano.)

Thus saith the Lord of Hosts—Yet once a little while, and I will shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land; and I will shake all nations; and the desire of all nations shall come. The Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to His temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in; Behold, He shall come, saith the Lord of Hosts.
