FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1891. [One Penny.]

PEOPLE'S PALACE
Club, Class and General Gossip.
COMING EVENTS.
FRIDAY, 8th May.—Library open from 10 to 5 and from 6 to 10. Free. Newspapers may be seen from 8 a.m. Swimming Bath open from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m.ES. Elementary Architecture Examination, from 6 to 10 p.m. 3. Historic Ornament Examination, from 7 to 10 p.m. Sound, Light, and Heat Examination, from 7 to 10 p.m. Saturday, 9th.—Library open from 10 to 5 and from 6 to 10. Free. Newspaper may be seen from 8 a.m. Swimming Bath open from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. Organ Recital and Concert. Admission, Threepence. Students’ and Hygiene Examinations, from 7 to 10 p.m. Organic Chemistry, Elementary Stage, from 3.30 to 5.45 p.m. Inorganic Chemistry, Elementary Stage, from 9 to 10.30 p.m.
SUNDAY, 10th.—Library open from 3 to 10 p.m. Organ Recital and Concert. Admission, Twopence. Students’ and Hygiene Examinations, from 7 to 10 p.m. Inorganic Chemistry, Elementary Stage, from 9 to 10.30 p.m.
MONDAY, 11th.—Library open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from 6 to 10 p.m. Newspapers may be seen from 8 a.m. Swimming Bath open from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. In the Queen’s Hall, Public Meeting of the East London Women’s Temperance Union.
TUESDAY, 12th.—Library open from 10 to 5 and from 6 to 10, free. Newspapers may be seen from 8 a.m. Swimming Bath open (for females only) from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. Plant Drawing in Outline Examination, from 7 to 10 p.m. Mathematics (Stages 4 and 5) and Hygiene Examinations, from 7 to 10 p.m.
WEDNESDAY, 13th.—Library open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from 6 to 10 p.m., free. Newspapers may be seen from 8 a.m. Swimming Bath open from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. In the Queen’s Hall, at 5 p.m., Organ Recital and Concert. Admission, Twopence. Students, on production of their Pass, One Penny. Organic Chemistry and Inorganic Examinations, from 7 to 10 p.m.
THURSDAY, 14th.—Library open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from 6 to 10 p.m., free. Newspapers may be seen from 8 a.m. Swimming Bath open from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. Inorganic Chemistry Examination, from 7 to 10 p.m.
FRIDAY, 15th.—Library open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from 6 to 10 p.m., free. Newspapers may be seen from 8 a.m. Swimming Bath open from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m.

The fourth summer course of practical instruction given in our photographic department will commence on Thursday, May 14th. There will be an afternoon class, from 2 till 5 o’clock, a special feature of this course being several practical demonstrations in the field. In the evening there will also be a practical class, from 6.30 till 8.30. Both courses will continue each Thursday until the close of the Session, July 30th. Syllabus of the courses may be obtained on application.

PEOPLE’S PALACE RAMBLING CLUB.—We experienced our first dead failure this season on Saturday last, when we started for the ramble to Buckhurst Hill. Owing to the inclement of the weather no one put in an appearance, and, consequently, the outing was dropped. —Appointments:—Saturday, May 8th, Horrigan’s Museum, Surrey House, Forest Hill. Meet at 2.45 London Bridge, L.B. and S.C. Railway Station. Monday, May 15th, Windsor Castle. Meet at Waterloo Station, L. and S.W. Railway at 10.15 a.m.

W. POCKETT, Sec.

PEOPLE’S PALACE CRICKET CLUB (President, N. L. Cohen, Esq.).—Only four members turned up at Walthamstow on Saturday last, owing no doubt, to the inclement weather, so the match, Captain’s and Vice-Captain’s were not played. We play the Polytechnic at Meriton Hall Farm to-morrow. Those members who are not advised to play (and they will number nearly 20) will find appliances the Polytechnic Cricket Ground, May 9th.

F. A. HUNTER, Hon. Sec.

PEOPLE’S PALACE TECHNICAL SCHOOLS.—SCIENCE AND ART EXAMINATIONS.—Week ending May 16th, 1891.—Saturday, May 9th—Practical Inorganic Chemistry, Elementary Stage 3.30 to 5.45 p.m. 2.30 to 3 p.m. 7 to 9 p.m. 7.45 to 9.30 p.m. Design and Ornament Examination. 2.30 to 3 p.m. Practical Inorganic Chemistry, Elementary Stage, from 3.30 to 5.45 p.m. Inorganic Chemistry, Elementary Stage, from 9 to 10.30 p.m.

Tuesday, May 12th—Organic Chemistry, Stages 4 and 5 7 to 10 p.m.

Wednesday, May 13th—Organic Chemistry, Elementary Stage 7 to 10 p.m.

THURSDAY, 14th.—Library open from 10 to 5 and from 6 to 10, free. Newspapers may be seen from 8 a.m. Swimming Bath open from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. In the Queen’s Hall, the popular Musical Union will perform “Elijah.” Admissions Threepence. Students’ and Hygiene Examinations, from 7 to 10 p.m. Inorganic Chemistry, Elementary Stage, from 9 to 10.30 p.m.

Friday, May 15th—Library open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from 6 to 10, free. Newspapers may be seen from 8 a.m. Swimming Bath open from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. Elementary Architecture Examination, from 3.30 to 7 p.m. Inorganic Chemistry, Elementary Stage, from 9 to 10.30 p.m.

Saturday, May 9th—Practical Inorganic Chemistry, Elementary Stage 3.30 to 5.45 p.m. 2.30 to 3 p.m. 7 to 9 p.m. 7.45 to 9.30 p.m. Design and Ornament Examination. 2.30 to 3 p.m. Practical Inorganic Chemistry, Elementary Stage, from 3.30 to 5.45 p.m. Inorganic Chemistry, Elementary Stage, from 9 to 10.30 p.m.

Tuesday, May 12th—Organic Chemistry, Stages 4 and 5 7 to 10 p.m.

Wednesday, May 13th—Organic Chemistry, Elementary Stage 7 to 10 p.m.

Thursday, May 14th—Library open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from 6 to 10, free. Newspapers may be seen from 8 a.m. Swimming Bath open from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. Inorganic Chemistry Examination, from 7 to 10 p.m.

Friday, May 15th—Library open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from 6 to 10, free. Newspapers may be seen from 8 a.m. Swimming Bath open from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m.

The examinations are being well attended; the Queen’s Hall on Saturday last was a sight worth seeing, 327 students getting spaced out five feet apart, being examined in Machine Construction for four solid hours. There was hardly a whisper, nothing but hard work going on. Mr. Low will be looking for large results, I am sure. In the school buildings over 100 students were sitting for the Building Construction Exam, while in the Art Rooms other students were being examined in 3rd Grade subjects. The Queen’s Hall has been used this week for examinations in Mathematics on Wednesday, and in Magnetism on Thursday.

THE Queen’s Hall will be ready to-morrow for the performance of “Elijah” by the Popular Musical Union; our friends will do well to come early.

On Sunday next our Choral Society and Orchestra will give selections from “Samson” in the afternoon. For programme see page 299.

On Tuesday next the bath will be reserved for women from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m.

A MEETING will be held on Monday next, at 8.30 p.m., for the purpose of forming a Swimming Club in connection with the Palace. All members are heartily invited. It will be a disgrace to the Palace if we cannot form a club out of our 2,700 students. Members unable to attend the meeting will please leave their names in the office.

“The exams are being well attended; the Queen’s Hall on Saturday last was a sight worth seeing, 327 students getting spaced out five feet apart, being examined in Machine Construction for four solid hours. There was hardly a whisper, nothing but hard work going on. Mr. Low will be looking for large results, I am sure. In the school buildings over 100 students were sitting for the Building Construction Exam, while in the Art Rooms other students were being examined in 3rd Grade subjects. The Queen’s Hall has been used this week for examinations in Mathematics on Wednesday, and in Magnetism on Thursday.

THE Queen’s Hall will be ready to-morrow for the performance of “Elijah” by the Popular Musical Union; our friends will do well to come early.

On Sunday next our Choral Society and Orchestra will give selections from “Samson” in the afternoon. For programme see page 299.

On Tuesday next the bath will be reserved for women from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m.

A MEETING will be held on Monday next, at 8.30 p.m., for the purpose of forming a Swimming Club in connection with the Palace. All members are heartily invited. It will be a disgrace to the Palace if we cannot form a club out of our 2,700 students. Members unable to attend the meeting will please leave their names in the office.

“GROWTH OF NATIONAL UNITY” EXAMINATION, in connection with the London Society for the Extension of University Teaching.—List of successful candidates:—

Dean, Helen. Pennington, Lillian.
Thomas, Sarah. Wheatley, Edward.
White, William.

Those marked with an asterisk (thus *) are recommended for distinction by the lecturer on account of the weekly work, and by the examiner upon the result of the examination.
"The Devil's Castaways."

May 8, 1891.

The Palace Journal.

"I RESEARCH the for my son, Ornament, whom I have begotten in my bonds; whom I have sent again; thou, therefore, receive him. For perhaps he departeth for ever: not now as a servant, but rather as a son; in the presence of the Father. But if a son, then an heir of God through Christ Jesus."

Thus doth Paul address the Thessalonian converts, quoting from Genesis. For, indeed, as Paul declared, his heart was full of affection for the Thessalonians, whom he had left in the days of his imprisonment, amid the besetting trials and temptations of that experience. Indeed, the apostle was moved to this approach of affection not alone by the sacred ties of blood, but also by the sacred tie of love. For to Paul, the Thessalonians were always "the elect of God, the holy of the Lord."

But let us not forget the man of Thessalonica. The man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, but who remained "the chief of sinners."" If ever there was a man who never learned to acknowledge Christ as the chief among sinners, he might have been the one who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love. For the man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, may be the chief of sinners, he might become the chief of sinners.

But let us not forget the man of Thessalonica. The man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, but who remained "the chief of sinners."" If ever there was a man who never learned to acknowledge Christ as the chief among sinners, he might have been the one who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love. For the man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, may be the chief of sinners, he might become the chief of sinners.

But let us not forget the man of Thessalonica. The man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, but who remained "the chief of sinners."" If ever there was a man who never learned to acknowledge Christ as the chief among sinners, he might have been the one who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love. For the man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, may be the chief of sinners, he might become the chief of sinners.

But let us not forget the man of Thessalonica. The man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, but who remained "the chief of sinners."" If ever there was a man who never learned to acknowledge Christ as the chief among sinners, he might have been the one who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love. For the man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, may be the chief of sinners, he might become the chief of sinners.

But let us not forget the man of Thessalonica. The man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, but who remained "the chief of sinners."" If ever there was a man who never learned to acknowledge Christ as the chief among sinners, he might have been the one who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love. For the man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, may be the chief of sinners, he might become the chief of sinners.

But let us not forget the man of Thessalonica. The man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, but who remained "the chief of sinners."" If ever there was a man who never learned to acknowledge Christ as the chief among sinners, he might have been the one who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love. For the man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, may be the chief of sinners, he might become the chief of sinners.

But let us not forget the man of Thessalonica. The man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, but who remained "the chief of sinners."" If ever there was a man who never learned to acknowledge Christ as the chief among sinners, he might have been the one who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love. For the man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, may be the chief of sinners, he might become the chief of sinners.

But let us not forget the man of Thessalonica. The man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, but who remained "the chief of sinners."" If ever there was a man who never learned to acknowledge Christ as the chief among sinners, he might have been the one who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love. For the man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, may be the chief of sinners, he might become the chief of sinners.

But let us not forget the man of Thessalonica. The man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, but who remained "the chief of sinners."" If ever there was a man who never learned to acknowledge Christ as the chief among sinners, he might have been the one who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love. For the man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, may be the chief of sinners, he might become the chief of sinners.

But let us not forget the man of Thessalonica. The man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, but who remained "the chief of sinners."" If ever there was a man who never learned to acknowledge Christ as the chief among sinners, he might have been the one who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love. For the man who was cast out for his love of Christ, and who was brought to Christ through the rebound of his love, may be the chief of sinners, he might become the chief of sinners.
Our Palace Gymnasts.

FRI. AY, 8th of May, 1891, will be a proud and numerou ness with the history of the Province of Sweden. Our the Royal Gymnastics Society to present and take the part in the annual competition. The gymnasts be held in the presence of the Royal Governor of ibility. The Palace Gymnasiums will have the in front of, and in the immediate vicinity of the Palace of Sweden, it is then that our representations the honour of the Swedish and People's Palace Gymnastics. No way to what their true gymnastics will be shall be a red However, these整整 absolutely no doubt common copper coin.
ren. Whatever that the Palace men will do full credit and the grandeur of the whole thing belongs, and of the words of Colonel G. M. Fox, Her Majesty's Chief In former, and are a good balance of fellows, and excellently trained.
ful, I am sure, do credit to London." So delighted is Colonel Fox with them that he has invited them to cooperate with the military team of gymnasts in giving a grand gymnastic display on landing at Gothenburgh before proceeding inland.
stockholm. This is indeed an honour; to be linked with one of the finest bodies of gymnasts and to be associated with all conquerors.
more, we speak volumes for the efficiency of our men.

This display at Gothenburgh takes place on Monday night, May 18th, and will therefore quickly follow upon our arrival in the country—let us hope, with the same good*salutcs. Upon which, by the joint interest of the picked and best men in the national teams. The gymnasts of the Swedish Gymnastic Staff Corps and British Army at large, will honour their respective countries by giving a performance in the Queen's Hall; if such be so, take the advice of one who knows, and do not fail to see it. The Palace Journal.

The Melbourne Cigar Stores, 178, Mile End Road.
President, Mr. Kerby, opposite London Hospital.
Mr. Haines, 212, Mile End Road.
Mr. Abrahams, Post Office, Globe Road.
Mr. Roder, 163, Green Street.
Mr. Hanson, 111, Roman Road.
Mr. Sampson, 185, Roman Road.
Mr. Connor, opposite South Hackney Church.
Berry and Holland, 180, Well Street, Hackney.
Mr. Smith, 21, Burdett Road.

THE Melbourne Society's Cigar Stores.

Mr. Osborn will leave the Palace about 9 o'clock to see the return of the teams. It is rumoured that the military team,
Mr. Osborn will leave the Palace about 9 o'clock to see the return of the teams. It is rumoured that the military team, will be rejoiced to see the "Thorsten" sail. The Palace
Palace Journal.

Mr. Osborn will leave the Palace about 9 o'clock to see the return of the teams. It is rumoured that the military team, will be rejoiced to see the "Thorsten" sail. The Palace

From the headquarters of Richard Monkton Milnes, first
Lord Houghton, it is reported that Houghton, approaching Sir
Robert Peel on the subject of a pension for Tennyson, which he had pressed, and that Carlyle had urged him to do so.
He was in the following conversation: "Richard Milnes," said
Carlyle "on the day of Tennyson's state funeral, there was a conversation during which the question of a pension for Tennyson arose. They knew nothing about him or his works, and they had no idea what he was doing. He was some sort of a poet of my own, and that the whole subject is a shame was Carlyle's indignation at Milnes' proposal to give a pension for Tennyson. He had the following words to say, not far from the present Palace of Westminster:

"The Palace Journal.

Mr. Osborn will leave the Palace about 9 o'clock to see the return of the teams. It is rumoured that the military team, will be rejoiced to see the "Thorsten" sail. The Palace

From the headquarters of Richard Monkton Milnes, first
Lord Houghton, it is reported that Houghton, approaching Sir
Robert Peel on the subject of a pension for Tennyson, which
he had pressed, and that Carlyle had urged him to do so.
He was in the following conversation: "Richard Milnes," said
Carlyle "on the day of Tennyson's state funeral, there was
a conversation during which the question of a pension for Tennyson arose. They knew nothing about him or his works, and they had no idea what he was doing. He was some sort of a poet of my own, and that the whole subject is a

shame was Carlyle's indignation at Milnes' proposal to give a pension for Tennyson. He had the following words to say, not far from the present Palace of Westminster:
"The Palace Journal.

Mr. Osborn will leave the Palace about 9 o'clock to see the return of the teams. It is rumoured that the military team, will be rejoiced to see the "Thorsten" sail. The Palace

From the headquarters of Richard Monkton Milnes, first
Lord Houghton, it is reported that Houghton, approaching Sir
Robert Peel on the subject of a pension for Tennyson, which
he had pressed, and that Carlyle had urged him to do so.
He was in the following conversation: "Richard Milnes," said
Carlyle "on the day of Tennyson's state funeral, there was
a conversation during which the question of a pension for Tennyson arose. They knew nothing about him or his works, and they had no idea what he was doing. He was some sort of a poet of my own, and that the whole subject is a

shame was Carlyle's indignation at Milnes' proposal to give a pension for Tennyson. He had the following words to say, not far from the present Palace of Westminster:
"The Palace Journal.

Mr. Osborn will leave the Palace about 9 o'clock to see the return of the teams. It is rumoured that the military team, will be rejoiced to see the "Thorsten" sail. The Palace

From the headquarters of Richard Monkton Milnes, first
Lord Houghton, it is reported that Houghton, approaching Sir
Robert Peel on the subject of a pension for Tennyson, which
he had pressed, and that Carlyle had urged him to do so.
He was in the following conversation: "Richard Milnes," said
Carlyle "on the day of Tennyson's state funeral, there was
a conversation during which the question of a pension for Tennyson arose. They knew nothing about him or his works, and they had no idea what he was doing. He was some sort of a poet of my own, and that the whole subject is a

shame was Carlyle's indignation at Milnes' proposal to give a pension for Tennyson. He had the following words to say, not far from the present Palace of Westminster:
"The Palace Journal.

Mr. Osborn will leave the Palace about 9 o'clock to see the return of the teams. It is rumoured that the military team, will be rejoiced to see the "Thorsten" sail. The Palace

From the headquarters of Richard Monkton Milnes, first
Lord Houghton, it is reported that Houghton, approaching Sir
Robert Peel on the subject of a pension for Tennyson, which
he had pressed, and that Carlyle had urged him to do so.
He was in the following conversation: "Richard Milnes," said
Carlyle "on the day of Tennyson's state funeral, there was
a conversation during which the question of a pension for Tennyson arose. They knew nothing about him or his works, and they had no idea what he was doing. He was some sort of a poet of my own, and that the whole subject is a

shame was Carlyle's indignation at Milnes' proposal to give a pension for Tennyson. He had the following words to say, not far from the present Palace of Westminster:
"The Palace Journal.

Mr. Osborn will leave the Palace about 9 o'clock to see the return of the teams. It is rumoured that the military team, will be rejoiced to see the "Thorsten" sail. The Palace

From the headquarters of Richard Monkton Milnes, first
Lord Houghton, it is reported that Houghton, approaching Sir
Robert Peel on the subject of a pension for Tennyson, which
he had pressed, and that Carlyle had urged him to do so.
He was in the following conversation: "Richard Milnes," said
Carlyle "on the day of Tennyson's state funeral, there was
a conversation during which the question of a pension for Tennyson arose. They knew nothing about him or his works, and they had no idea what he was doing. He was some sort of a poet of my own, and that the whole subject is a

shame was Carlyle's indignation at Milnes' proposal to give a pension for Tennyson. He had the following words to say, not far from the present Palace of Westminster:
"The Palace Journal.
May 8, 1874.

The Palace Journal.

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a

There was, however, one thing which gratified Mrs. Stanley exceedingly. If he was nothing else, Mark Stanley was pious. He wrote to his father for money, and received it with a parent's for more money. Half of the amount he finally asked for came, but it came very reluctantly; and Marks bit very disheartening. Almost constant clues to the whereabouts of Mary Stanley, as he last saw her, when the Indians dragged her away, grief-stricken and terrified. To leave her to the cruel him into rage and fury. And so the brunt of the second year of the search fell upon Dubb. Before his eyes was ever the image.

It might have been Dubb's lack of grammatical direction, or the fact that he wrote in a jargon of sounds which bore no resemblance to words. Dubb regarded him silently and complacently.

"Hang them! no!" cried Stanley, tearing the letter in chunks. "I don't seem to be able to see what good you am to git out of taking my wife's behalf. Dubb let Mark rant and rail for a long time before with very bad grace.

"What be more, I don't see as how as it s any of your business, Dubb." The answer to Mark's letter was a very thick package, and it might have been Dubb's lack of grammatical direction, but for his desire to pay back the money he had loaned in'that way. Do you have any means than by borrowing and begging. Trusting that our proceedings may arouse you to a proper sense of duty, that you will remember my Christian training! Do honour to my family in His grace. I found here ; and we are apt to find it mighty soon, if we don't. Life, at best, is a thing that is all mixed up. But he did concern himself enough about it to write home all steeped in their sins, who are far from God, and are not concerned about their souls. And the widow had her heart set on the child's happiness. The suckling's tongue now cleaveth for thirst to his mouth: the infant children ask for bread, and there is no one breaketh it to them; and the young men are hungry, and their flame is quenched as at the Doomsday. The suckling's tongue now cleaveth for thirst to his mouth: the infant children ask for bread, and there is no one breaketh it to them; and the young men are hungry, and their flame is quenched as at the Doomsday.-Obadiah.

"Hang them! no!" cried Stanley, tearing the letter in chunks. "I don't seem to be able to see what good you am to git out of taking my wife's behalf. Dubb let Mark rant and rail for a long time before with very bad grace.

"What be more, I don't see as how as it s any of your business, Dubb."

Dubb regarded him silently and complacently.

"Hang them! no!" cried Stanley, tearing the letter in chunks. "I don't seem to be able to see what good you am to git out of taking my wife's behalf. Dubb let Mark rant and rail for a long time before with very bad grace.

"What be more, I don't see as how as it s any of your business, Dubb."

Dubb regarded him silently and complacently.

"Hang them! no!" cried Stanley, tearing the letter in chunks. "I don't seem to be able to see what good you am to git out of taking my wife's behalf. Dubb let Mark rant and rail for a long time before with very bad grace.

"What be more, I don't see as how as it s any of your business, Dubb."

Dubb regarded him silently and complacently.

"Hang them! no!" cried Stanley, tearing the letter in chunks. "I don't seem to be able to see what good you am to git out of taking my wife's behalf. Dubb let Mark rant and rail for a long time before with very bad grace.

"What be more, I don't see as how as it s any of your business, Dubb."

Dubb regarded him silently and complacently.

"Hang them! no!" cried Stanley, tearing the letter in chunks. "I don't seem to be able to see what good you am to git out of taking my wife's behalf. Dubb let Mark rant and rail for a long time before with very bad grace.

"What be more, I don't see as how as it s any of your business, Dubb."

Dubb regarded him silently and complacently.

"Hang them! no!" cried Stanley, tearing the letter in chunks. "I don't seem to be able to see what good you am to git out of taking my wife's behalf. Dubb let Mark rant and rail for a long time before with very bad grace.

"What be more, I don't see as how as it s any of your business, Dubb."

Dubb regarded him silently and complacently.

"Hang them! no!" cried Stanley, tearing the letter in chunks. "I don't seem to be able to see what good you am to git out of taking my wife's behalf. Dubb let Mark rant and rail for a long time before with very bad grace.

"What be more, I don't see as how as it s any of your business, Dubb."

Dubb regarded him silently and complacently.

"Hang them! no!" cried Stanley, tearing the letter in chunks. "I don't seem to be able to see what good you am to git out of taking my wife's behalf. Dubb let Mark rant and rail for a long time before with very bad grace.

"What be more, I don't see as how as it s any of your business, Dubb."

Dubb regarded him silently and complacently.

"Hang them! no!" cried Stanley, tearing the letter in chunks. "I don't seem to be able to see what good you am to git out of taking my wife's behalf. Dubb let Mark rant and rail for a long time before with very bad grace.

"What be more, I don't see as how as it s any of your business, Dubb."

Dubb regarded him silently and complacently.

"Hang them! no!" cried Stanley, tearing the letter in chunks. "I don't seem to be able to see what good you am to git out of taking my wife's behalf. Dubb let Mark rant and rail for a long time before with very bad grace.

"What be more, I don't see as how as it s any of your business, Dubb."

Dubb regarded him silently and complacently.

"Hang them! no!" cried Stanley, tearing the letter in chunks. "I don't seem to be able to see what good you am to git out of taking my wife's behalf. Dubb let Mark rant and rail for a long time before with very bad grace.

"What be more, I don't see as how as it s any of your business, Dubb."

Dubb regarded him silently and complacently.
sustain thee. He never will suffer the righteous to fall. He is the Lord our God: O Israel, hear! Our God is one Lord, and we there let them be slain.

Who is it that breaketh the rock into pieces? Who is it that cutteth the wooden image? Yet his name the Lord of Hosts is; and He is the God of all the earth. He also closeth the heavens and causeth his anger to rest; He provoketh men to the work of evildoers. And when it raineth, it spoileth the earth, and maketh it soft. He casteth forth lightning, that it causeth the earth to shiver.

What shall I do to thee, O Samaria? What shall I do, that I should smite thee yet once? I will smite thee in that I will smite thee a second time. For I will send against thee the strength of mine hand once, and twice, and there shall be no escape: when thou shalt rise up, it shall be too little; and when thou shalt sit down, it shall be too much.

The houses of Israel shall yet again buy fields for money, and. houses for silver, and garments for silver, and headdresses for gold, and girdles for brass, and bonds for iron, and bowlers for wood. And they shall make them every one an idol after his own imagination, and all of them shall go unto the image of their own shame. And they shall go into all the kingdoms of the nations, and shall be polluted by their idols, and by their detestable things, and by all their abominations. And I will send upon them the blast of the Lord, which shall destroy all the strong men of Israel as the blast destroyeth the harvest. And I will give Israel to be for a servant unto the nations for a little season, and afterward I will return their captivity.

If I deliver thee of all these things, and save thee, and stablish thee forever; if I raise thee from the dead, and make thee to sit with me in my throne, and if he that shall plant thee and make thee increase, and if I raise thee up the root of thine都知道，等等。
3°°

3. ALLEGRETTO in B minor
4. GRAND CHŒUR in D

5. MARCHE FUNEBRE

Comes this way sailing like a stately ship.

My wife? my traitress! let her not come near me.

Their force is null'd. Where once I have been caught,

I shun the snare. These chains, this prison-house,

Ne'er think of that, I know thy warbling charms,

I count the house of liberty to thine.

1 come not, Samson, to condole thy chance;

I am of Gath, men call me Harapha:

We met, to try each other's deeds of strength:

Much have I heard, incredible to me

Prevailing over fear and timorous doubt.

I'd see if thy appearance answers loud report.

For pardon scorned, your threats give o'er.

I know him by his stride and haughty look.

No words of peace, no voice enchanting fear,

Thus coos the turtle left alone.

Nor by the heathen be they told.

All happiness is love enjoyed.

But hear me, hear the voice of love.

But hear her, hear the voice of love.

To man God's universal law

and

HARAPHA

His mighty griefs redress,

His thunder roars, heaven shakes, and earth's aghast.

His glory calls, this day admits no rest.

Israel depends on Thee alone.

To song and dance we give the day,

And sweep this race from out the land.

Oh save us, prostrate at Thy throne!

Thy honour certain to have won from thee

Presume not on Thy God,

Who under foot has trod

With angry steps the stately gate.

May 8, 1891.

The Palace Journal.

VOCALISTS—MADAME ADELAIDE MULLEN, MISS RHODA SUTHERLAND.

PROGRAMME OF ORGAN RECITAL & CONCERT

To be given on WEDNESDAY, MAY 13th, at 8 o'clock.
GEORGE HUNT'S
Herbal Medicine Store,
104, GREEN STREET,
Herbal Medicines at Small Cost—Try Them.

Sole Agents for the London Society of Artists.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT.
The Best Medicines for Family Use.

THE PILLS.
THE OINTMENT.

Go to Gapp's

JARRETT & GUDGE'S
BESMITH ORNAMENTAL WORK, CHECK ACTION}
PAINFORS

AND AMERICAN ORGANS.

G. SEADEN,
GOLDING VILLA STATIONERY, 49, BARK BUILDINGS,
BARRING ROAD,
CANNING TOWN.

PEOPLE'S PALACE GYMNASIUM.

C. R. REYNOLDS, Contractor for Wedding and Other Decorations.

ALAN RAPER,
ENTIRELY NEW STOCK
WACHES, CLOCKS,
JEWEIY,
DIAMOND AND GEM RINGS,
WEDDING RINGS, KEEPERs, &c., &c.

THE SCOTTISH
Sanitary Laundry,
131,
MILE END ROAD,

AN EVENING GYMNASIUM.

PEOPLE'S PALACE MEMORY LESSONS.

Arrangements have been made for Members of the Polyglot Troupe to rend music courses of Prof. Loisette's Memory Training Lessons for 8d. each of 4s. per hour. Lessons 24s. 6d.

Miss S. C. M. HUNTER, Author of "The Polyglot Troupe," and Miss M. D. W. SHERRELL, Author of "How to Strengthen the Memory," with Prof. Loisette system of memory training, in effect, and immediately.

The largest selection in the East of London at Manufacturers' Prices.

Rogers "NURSERY"
HAIR-LOCTION.

The Bent Medicals for Family Use.

Fur and Other

For sale and by mail.

Prof. Loisette, 37, NEW OXFORD STREET, LONDON.

People's Palace, East London,

Drapers' Company's Institute.

A course of six lectures on " Water Works and Water Supply," will be given, (Class Sections.)

Mr. A. A. W. NICHOLSON, Contractor for the London Society of Artists.

Mr. R. C. ANDERSON, Teacher of Repousse and Art Metal Work.

G. R. D. DANELS, Teacher of Wood Carving.

H. B. E. SEADEN, Teacher of Etching.

M. S. S.; Teacher of Drawing.

W. W. SMITH, Teacher of Cabinet Making and Designing.

J. A. F. HAYES, Teacher of Piano, Organ, and Singing.

CLEVELAND, Teacher of Ornamental Work.

J. B. R. BRIGHT, Teacher of Drawing.

E. G. B. WRIGHT, Teacher of Ornamental Work.

J. B. R. BRIGHT, Teacher of Ornamental Work.

H. B. E. SEADEN, Teacher of Etching.

G. R. D. DANELS, Teacher of Wood Carving.

H. B. E. SEADEN, Teacher of Etching.

G. R. D. DANELS, Teacher of Wood Carving.

H. B. E. SEADEN, Teacher of Etching.

G. R. D. DANELS, Teacher of Wood Carving.

H. B. E. SEADEN, Teacher of Etching.

G. R. D. DANELS, Teacher of Wood Carving.

H. B. E. SEADEN, Teacher of Etching.

G. R. D. DANELS, Teacher of Wood Carving.

H. B. E. SEADEN, Teacher of Etching.

G. R. D. DANELS, Teacher of Wood Carving.

H. B. E. SEADEN, Teacher of Etching.

G. R. D. DANELS, Teacher of Wood Carving.

H. B. E. SEADEN, Teacher of Etching.

G. R. D. DANELS, Teacher of Wood Carving.

H. B. E. SEADEN, Teacher of Etching.

G. R. D. DANELS, Teacher of Wood Carving.

H. B. E. SEADEN, Teacher of Etching.

G. R. D. DANELS, Teacher of Wood Carving.

H. B. E. SEADEN, Teacher of Etching.

G. R. D. DANELS, Teacher of Wood Carving.

H. B. E. SEADEN, Teacher of Etching.

G. R. D. DANELS, Teacher of Wood Carving.

H. B. E. SEADEN, Teacher of Etching.

G. R. D. DANELS, Teacher of Wood Carving.

H. B. E. SEADEN, Teacher of Etching.

G. R. D. DANELS, Teacher of Wood Carving.

H. B. E. SEADEN, Teacher of Etching.

G. R. D. DANELS, Teacher of Wood Carving.
C. C. & T. MOORE
Respectfully announce the dates of their old established Periodical Sales of ESTATES
and House Property.
(Held for a period of one year, which are appointed to take place at the Auction Mart, Totham Townhouse Yard, on the 2nd and 4th Thursdays of the Month,
during the year 1873 as follows.
Jan. 22 July 23 Sept. 24 Oct. 21
Feb. 12 26 May 12 26
March 12 26 June 12 26
April 9 23 July 14 28
May 14 28 August 12 26
June 14 28 Special attention given to rent collecting and the entire management of house property. Insurances effected.
Auction and Survey Offices:
144, MILE END RD., E.

J. & J. H. ARDEN, Auctioneers and Surveyors,
69, Salmon's Lane, Stepney (near Stepney Railway Station), and Woodford, Essex.
Office Hours from 10 to 3.
SALES IN AUCTION of Freehold and Leasold Property, Land, Farms, Shops, Furniture, Building Materials, etc., in all parts of England. Money-adverse properties included. Agents required and guaranteed. Estates managed. Valuations made for all purposes. Mortgages negotiated. Agents for Life, Accident, and Plate Glass Insurances. Certified Bailiffs under the new Law Dessoices Amendment Act.

S. BERNSTEIN, ESTABLISHED 1876.
Watch and Clock Maker, Working Jeweller,
ELECTRO PLATER AND GILDER,
170, SALMON'S LANE, LIMEHOUSE, E.
(Opposite Limehouse Town Hall, corner of Commercial Rd., next door to Gardiner's.)
TO AT
356, MILE END RD. (opposite Bancroft Rd.)
Watches Cleaned & Regulated 1/6
New Main Spring, best quality 1/-
New Hand to Watch 1/2
All work warranted for Twelve Months.

S. M. STANLEY AND EMIN PASHA.
NEWEST COLLECTION OF NAPOLEONIC RELICS IN THE WORLD, and of the NAPOLITAN REVOLUTION,
FULL ORCHESTRA, LADIES BAND, ORGAN RECITALS, etc.
CHAMBER OF HORRORS.

F. A. CAPERONE,
MUSIC SELLER,
MUSICAL INSTRUMENT DEALER,
And Professor of the Piano, Organ and Violin,
85, MARE ST., HACKNEY,
Late of 473, HACKNEY ROAD.

THE ALDGATE TURKISH BATHS.
J. & H. NEVILL.
Gentlemen—44, High St., Whitechapel.
Ladies—7, Commercial Road.
(Next door to Gardiner's)
2s. 6d. before 6; Is. 6d. after 6 p.m.
And at London Bridge and Charing Cross.

THE ROYAL MAKER.

C. C. TAYLOR & SON,
10 & 12, MILE END RD., E.
SALES BY AUCTION of every description of Property.
VALUATIONS & SURVEYS FOR ALL PURPOSES.
RENTS COLLECTED & HOUSE PROPERTY MANAGED.
Insurances effected in the Phoenix Fire, London and General Plate Glass, British Empire Mutual Life, and the Accident Insurance Companies.

W. S. CROKER,
Cycle Manufacturer,
1, St. Stephen's Road,
BOW, E.
Any make of Machines supplied at a large discount for Cash, or on easy payment system. Repairs on every description executed Promptly and Cheaply. All the latest pattern Machines let on hire.
Second-hand Machines Bought, Sold, or Exchanged.
Fittings supplied and Repairs done for the Trade.
2, ST. STEPHEN'S ROAD, BOW, E.

J. W. SMITH & BOTWRIGHT
Advertising Offices ARE REMOVED TO
23, TABERNACLE STREET,
AND
23, CASTLE STREET,
FINSBURY, E.C.

C. W. REDWOOD,
MANUFACTURER AND IMPORTER
OF
MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS,
391F, Mile End Road,
Opposite Burdett Road.

C. W. REDWOOD,
MANUFACTURER AND IMPORTER
OF
MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS,
391F, Mile End Road,
Opposite Burdett Road.

GIVEN AWAY!
Your Rubber Stamp.
NAMES IN FULL or MONOGRAM, mounted, post free for 10 stamps,
to CRYSTAL PALACE JOHN BOND'S GOLD MOUNTING INK WORKS,
72, Southgate Road,
London, N. S. E.-
NITE INK; NO
HEATING; each
containing a Voucher;
Nickel Pencil Case,
with Pen, Pencil, and your Rubber
Name in Full, 7d stamps.
TIE ROYAL MAKER.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
People's Palace Students will be served with Strings and Instruments at specially reduced Prices.

PIANOS AND ORGANS ON SALE OR HIRE.

East London Banjo Studio.

Printed for the Trustees of the Bromley Trust, People's Palace, Mile End, E., by Harrison and Sons, Printers in Ordinary to Her Majesty, St. Martin's Lane, London.