On Tuesday next, the People's Palace Choral Society and Orchestra will give a concert at the Chelsea Town Hall, in aid of the funds of the Chelsea Centre of the London Society for the Extension of University Teaching. This will be our first appearance at the West End.

Our Team of Gymnasts arrived safely on Saturday last from Sweden, and, I learn, they won golden opinions in the home of modern gymnastics.

The new "Gym," was used for the first time on Monday last. Every one who has seen it pronounces it one of the best equipped in London, and we hope shortly to give a photo of it in the Journal. Mr. Burdett thinks it too small, so I should advise would-be gymnasts to apply early for membership.

We want some more members for the Cricket Club. The Tennis Club is flourishing, now that we have such a good ground at Walthamstow. Students can purchase railway tickets from Bethnal Green to St. James' Street, Walthamstow, for fourpence return, and from London Fields for threepence return; children half-price.

On Monday next we are to have a Costume Recital of Balfe's opera, "The Sleeping Queen," under the direction of Mr. Sinclair Dunn.

The First Gymnastic Display this year by the male team will be given on Wednesday next; when also the team that has appeared before the King and Crown Prince of Sweden will repeat some of their successful feats with the Indian clubs, etc. Members of the Institute one penny only.

PEOPLE'S PALACE CHORAL SOCIETY.—Conductor: Mr. Orton Bradley, M.A. We perform Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise" at Chelsea Town Hall, on Tuesday, June 2nd. We hope to have a good muster of the choir on that occasion. Our excursions will probably be held on Saturday, June 27th.

The Chillingham Wild Cattle

The Chillingham Wild Cattle have been known as an ancient breed of cattle for many years. The breed is known for its hardiness and ability to live in harsh conditions. The Chillingham Wild Cattle are descended from the Bos primigenius, which is the wild ancestor of all domestic cattle.

The Chillingham Wild Cattle are kept in the Chillingham Estate, which is located in the county of Northumberland, England. The estate has been owned by the Lyon family since the 14th century, and the Chillingham Wild Cattle have been kept on the estate for over 700 years.

The Chillingham Wild Cattle are known for their hardiness and ability to live in harsh conditions. They are also known for their buttery milk, which is high in fat and has a unique flavor.

Young ladies who wish to learn the art of typing must aim at a certain accuracy of mind. It is a mistake to think that typing can be taught by rote and done without intelligence, just as one can learn to play the piano by rote and without thought. Young ladies who wish to learn this art should try to get a knowledge of the principles of mechanics, of the key-board, and of the different parts of the typewriter. They also should study the English language, which is the language of the typewriter.

proved and hurt her that he found such difficulty in controlling himself. "The selfishness of his own nature, the human instinct, the desire to gratify self, he intended should govern the rest of his life."

"No! It is not that. It is a reason of the very nature of things that his mind was so wayward."

"I could recognize my self in that."

"His disposition made him love himself too much."

"It was a question of principle."

"Let us first of all try to know why our disposition makes us love ourselves so much."

"I could not comprehend them and him than because they

he intended should govern the rest of his lite, more because

With their separation, some portion of his former fear for her

But her absence completed the change in his character that his new relations had brought about. The change had been gradual, but it had been very

"There were so many other matters of making plans and negotiating with the efforts for the relief of Mrs. Stanley ; and nothing which could no man in camp was more popular than Dubb."

"He could not now dispense with any of these, nor could he imagine how he could live without them."

had such a quiet but decisive way of arraying facts against."

"He often saw Dubb straying from the camp, and not knowing why he was doing it."

SONG

But then as now, our hearts shall beat.
And every hour shall find thee still
It may be years, long weary years,
My guiding star thro' ev'ry hour,
But hearts shall glow with love's old power,
Where the wild flowers perfume
Fortunes we tell as onward we roam,
"Greeting"—they cry—"O daughter of Spain,
The mind will in its worst despair,
What could I wish to be
To weakest hopes will cling;
Nor ever roof so wide,
She takes a taper in her hand
And howls the tempest wild and free,
Ah me! whatever may betide,
As in my heart I'll thee enfold,
To change our bright morn to night.
To those on life's dark sea.
White crested is the murky sea,
She is the heart that beat there,
To beautiful to last.
To strongest hopes will cling;
Nor ever roof so wide;—
A noble work may be,
She is the home that was so happy,
To strongest sorrows will cling;
To those on life's dark sea.
For me, for me!
For me, for me!
For me, for me!
For me, for me!
But walls don't make a home, dear,
Nor ever roof so wide;
Dearest, dearest, &c.
Dearest of all, sweetheart to me!
Dearest, dearest of all,
What can no comfort bring.
Dearest of all, sweetheart to me!
Dearest, dearest of all,
Dearest of all to me,
Dearest, dearest of all,
Dearest of all to me,
