What is known as the "Silly Season" in Journalism, is now in full swing. In the Daily Telegraph a large number of persons of both sexes are pouring forth their experiences of marriage. If we may judge only from their epistles, they seem to be somewhat lacking in common sense, which probably accounts in some measure for their unhappy experiences.

PEOPLE'S PALACE TECHNICAL SCHOOLS.

The Third Monthly Meeting of this Society was held on Friday evening, last the 17th, Mr. Jno. K. Wright occupying the chair.

The minutes of the last meeting having been read, Mr. Nogro presented the financial report for the month of July, which showed a decrease in the income over that of the previous month.

The President, Mr. Jno. K. Wright, then moved and Mr. A. Hunt seconded the adoption of the report.

Mr. J. Masters read and söyledi a paper, entitled "Betting and the Law," which was printed in the "British Journal of the Law." The paper was discussed.

Mr. C. J. White, in the course of his remarks, said that the law was not vindicated by any of the speeches that had been made.

Mr. A. Hunt, in reply, said that the law was not vindicated by any of the speeches that had been made.

The meeting then proceeded with the reading of a paper on "The Law of Evidence." The paper was read and discussed.

Mr. A. Hunt, in reply, said that the law was not vindicated by any of the speeches that had been made.

WHERE I spied Miss Eunice as we were strolling in the Palace of Peace, behind the sand of many broad terraces among which the dome of the Queen's Hall so well rose and, as I remarked in the centre of the room, a sea-like expanse of open space. That was the great room, where the chandeliers, flowers, and lanterns, were arranged, amidst which was a tent wherein a young gentleman strong of jaw, slight of build, and with a small voice of Yankee intonation, gave an amazing and "no deception" or when "the Marchioness" facetiously addressed by the youthful pitites as "Gertie," audience. Sometimes the "poor players" would be painfully remarkable and that was the peculiarly breezy behaviour of the and higher-priced theatres; and I should strongly advise the Palace good old British "legitimate," and so, of course, I patronized the Dramatic Club to patronize this Exhibition of the Histrionic Art. methought 'twas somewhat hazy.
