Notes of the Week.

A CORRESPONDENCE has been raging in The Times provoked by a letter from Lord Bury, suggesting an exercise for word-coiners in the invention of a short practical name for the motion of an electrically-driven boat or carriage, and among some of the words suggested are volt, electrise, electrise, electric, motor, moto, trie, squirm, speed, gleam, amber, volize, oln, coulomb, electrize, Watt, Bury, electron, volize. The Scots Observer prints the following under the title, “The Passionate Electrician”—

Sweet, shall we volt it? Dearest shall we ohm Our winged way across the ocean foam? Or were it fairer to electrize (Or electrize) our path to happier skies? What’s in a name when all roads lead to Rome? Fairest and rarest under heaven’s high dome, O shall we squirm, or Watt, or electrone? Or, if you feel you’d rather not volize, Sweet, shall we volt?

Heart of my heart, no fond and frolic tome But the grave Times, that motal mentronome, Bids us coulomb, or spark, or motorize. And now I think of it the blue day dies: ’Tis time, ’tis time, that we were moting home—Sweet, shall we volt?

At Plymouth one William Smallwood married one Julia Grey, and subsequently left her and went to China. Julia married again, believing William to be dead. William himself took another wife, whose name was Harriett, and then, William vanishing again, Harriett married one, William John Jones. This is a little family complication which the Plymouth magistrates had to deal with last week. Let us hope that they are now quite satisfied and clear in their minds that they have done exactly what was just and proper with William and Julia, and Julia’s second husband, and Harriet and William John.

PEOPLE'S PALACE CRICKET CLUB.

The present head of the Church of the Saviour, Mr. C. J. C. C. B. is to be congratulated on the great improvement that has taken place since the last meeting. The meeting was opened by the President, Mr. J. C. C., who called attention to the fact that the Club has made a great advance in the last year, and that the present season promises to be a very successful one. The meeting then proceeded to the election of officers, and the following were chosen:

President—Mr. J. C. C.
Vice-President—Mr. W. J. W.
Secretary—Mr. F. W. H.
Treasurer—Mr. A. M. W.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Palace Journal.
distributed to our streets and homes. All these things were cheap, and so were the food, the clothes, and the books. Rambles, and when, last, at hazard, after counting Mr. Wright for his pound of sugar, and then, for his two-and-sixpenny boot, one that we visit the moon has been a great ware. From the this place is that it is a very famous and pleasant place for the United Service Magazine. At the Royal Exchange at ten a.m.

T. G. CARTER.

April 16, 1890.

Letter to Editor.

Dear Sir,—As a former pupil of the late Mr. D. J. A. B., and an admirer of his sentiments, his conscientious teaching, and his personal character, I write with a sense of surprise and wonder at the news.

I remember well the days when he was in residence at the school. His manner was always courteous, his work always thorough, and his influence always beneficial. His kindness and considerateness were qualities which he possessed in a very high degree. He was a man of great ability, and his presence was missed when he left the school.

I am now writing to express my regret at hearing of the loss of Mr. D. J. A. B., and to say how much I shall miss him while he is away.

Yours, truly,

J. E. SMITH.

Letter to Editor.

Dear Sir,—I am writing to you in regard to a certain matter which has been the subject of much discussion lately.

It is a well-known fact that the government has been taking steps to prevent the sale of certain articles. These articles are of a peculiar nature, and they are said to be dangerous to the public health. I am writing to you in order to express my regret at hearing of the loss of Mr. D. J. A. B., and to say how much I shall miss him while he is away.

Yours, truly,

J. E. SMITH.
