Notice to Readers.

A NEW SERIES of The Palace Journal commenced on August 6th, and it is with pleasure that we announce the introduction of several new and important features, which we hope will secure for this journal the patronage of the Palace Students. Members more fully than hitherto. As will be seen in the following notice, it is intended to give the whole week's programme in Members' reports, and to devote a separate section to Members' reports, which will be gladly welcomed, and shall receive the Editor's full attention. The Article Members, too, are also invited to send in drawings of anything they have executed, and such sketches will be reproduced and illustrated in the journal gratis if they are of sufficient merit.

All communications must be addressed to the Editor of The Palace Journal, and may be left at the office in the usual manner.

The Palace Journal will be sent post free as soon as published to any address in the United Kingdom for 10s. a year, or 1s. a quarter. Subscriptions must be prepaid. Volume V. is now ready, ready bound in cloth, etc. Covers binding, 6d.

Then, as I listened to the bells, and watched the skies afar,
Sad hearts forgot their sorrow, rough hearts grew soft and warm,
And ev'ry other star grew pale before that heavenly glow,
From street to street it led me, by many a mansion fair,
And where it shone the darkness was flooded all with gold.

While many a homeless wanderer uplifted patient eyes,
It flashed upon the golden gate, and o'er the crystal sea;
It was the star, the star of Bethlehem had led me up to God.
