OLD BOYS' TECHNICAL SCHOOL CRICKET CLUB.

This Club on Saturday, August 30th, played the return match with the London & B.E.C.C.C. and Bayswater, W.C., which was at the Palace ground, Wanstead, on Saturday, September 6th. The Old Boys, who had last season's match, were the only team who could last the 4th. In the batting, the visitors were resisted by Burrell and Davis, who added another 90 runs before the close, and made a very good start. The Old Boys were led by Bissett and Gurr, who finished the 2nd innings 80 and 90. The Old Boys' bowling was well supported by Gurr and Brown, who took 5 and 6 wickets respectively. August, 1890. But in case this is unobtainable, I append another article by the Hon. Maude Stanley, whose words are:

The Empress of India is about to publish a book. Nowadays the ranks of authoresses are being increased by some of the most distinguished in the literary world. A biographical notice of the authoress of the popular "Tinkers' Times" will be found in the Sunday Magazine, and is well worth perusal.

REVIEWS.

A lady has been engaged as organist at the Edgewhite Church Exhibition for the last week.

Another lady has carried off a prize for entomology on the organ at the Paris Conservatoire.

In the Leisure Hour for September will be found an article about the history of domestics in Paris, entitled "Domestic Servants." Last month we had "A Paper on Domestic servants" in another of the leading reviews.

In the September number of the English Illustrated, one article on the Hans, Madeleines, whose works are always in demand. A biographical notice of the authoress of the popular "Tintock Timble", will be found in the Sunday Magazine, and is well worth perusal.

   Mr. T. W. PAGE.

   Yes! let me like a soldier fall, upon some open plain;
   This breast expanding for the ball, to blot out every stain.
   Bravely manly hearts confer my doom, that gentler ones may fall.
   How're forgot, unknown my tomb, I like a soldier fell.

10. SONG... "La Sevilla's Groves"... H. Marvin Van Loen.
    MADAME BARTER.

    Oh, nightingale! the night is still,
    The shadows darken round,
    The moon is shining o'er Sevilla,
    And Real it is every sound!
    Then sing to me as once you sang,
    Of happy moments past and gone.
    My pipe—oh breathe full south, etc.

   Introducing Gerry Owen, Kathleen Mavourneen,
   The Shamrock, The Harp that once thro' Tara's days of former times, Rakes of Mallow (Vocal Chorus), Come back to Erin, Shilly Shally, Brian Borhoim's March, etc.

12. SONG... "Pipe Song"... Kip Van Winkle
    Mr. T. W. PAGE.

   I've had lady loves in my day,
   With lips rose red and a lustrious eye,
   And I've witnessed the rose decay,
   The beauty fades, and the lovelight dies.
   But my latest love will last,
   When fooled of youth are past.

14. E Flat Clarinet Solo... "Dame De Naytta"... Le Thiere.

15. SONG... "Twickenham Ferry"... Thos. Marshall.
    MADAME BARTER.

   Oh, ho-ye-ho, ho-ye-ho, "Who's for the ferry?"
   (The briers in bud, the sun going down),
   And 'tis but a penny to Twickenham Town;
   And 'tis but a penny to Twickenham Town;
   And 'tis but a penny to Twickenham Town.
   O ho-ye-ho, ho-ye-ho, ho-ye-ho-ho!" (The briers in bud, the sun going down),
   And 'tis but a penny to Twickenham Town.
   She'd a rose in her bonnet, and oh! she looked sweet
   With her cheeks like a rose, and her lips like a cherry,
   And he's fresh as a pippin, and brown as a berry,
   And he's not rowing quick, and he's not rowing steady.
   O ho-ye-ho-ho, ho-ye-ho-ho-ho!" (The briers in bud, the sun going down),
   And 'tis but a penny to Twickenham Town.
   ... "Balfe.

16. MARCH... "Bengali"... Brophy.

My pipe—O breathe full south,
From thy cool amber mouth;
Let my fond grasp entwine,
With thy kindling eye,
Arc more rapturous far,
Thy dim figure dwinne.
Thy kindling eye,
And thy odious sigh.
Are more rapturous far,
Than a love told by "light of the star!"
Women sometimes will prove unkind,
Capricious beauty will be, I know,
Poor man's torment time out of mind,
Now warm as led and now cold as snow!
But my pipe is mistress friend,
When love and illusion end!
My pipe—oh breathe full south, etc.

Our Holiday Competition.

Open to any member of the People's Palace under 20 years of age.

Prize Announcement.

In order to stimulate the members to greater effort, and to increase the interest in the Palace Journal, we have decided to offer a Prize of One Guinea for What is Decided to be the Best Description of Your Holiday, 1890.

This subject is chosen as being one suitable to persons of either sex.

Conditions.

The description may contain any number of words up to 2,000, and must be written on one side of the paper only.

Saturday, September 20th, is the last day for receiving competitions, which are considered to be the property of the Editor.

The successful description will be published in the Journal at a future date.

The successful Competitor must give satisfactory proof of age, and that the essay is his or her own unaided production.

Should there be a sufficient number of Competitors a further Prize of Half-a-Guinea will be awarded to the next best.

Chips.

A Portrait of Sir Edmund Currie will appear in our next issue.

The entertainment of last Monday consisted of a very superior performance by Mr. Russell,—an acknowledged decided success.

Test energetic "Day Man" has been in our midst as will be seen by a report under the head of Military Band notes... (one page)

Present Day Literature.

This is the man who writes jokes for the "Weekly Whirligig".

An old lady, visiting one of her friends, found a child of the latter, a mere six or seven years, sitting quietly and apparently in great distress.

"You should cry like that," said the visitor: "that's what makes little girls ugly!"

"She gets up through her tears and goes to the visitor: "What is for you most cruel when you were a little girl?"

EXTRACTS FROM OTHER LETTERS

Henry Nash, 85, Market Street, Botanical. writes: "I suffered from epilepsy for twenty years, but since wearing your Electric Belt I have not had a single attack, nor any epileptic-like symptoms. I have only visited your Exhibition once, but I am sure you will have many more visitors." We wish to impress upon our readers that the Medical Battery your ElectroBelt I have not had a single attack of headaches, &c.

EXTRACTS FROM OTHER LETTERS

Mrs. Lashford, 149, Oxford Lane, Warrington suffered severely from neuralgia, &c., and on receiving your ElectroBelt she had not had a single attack of headaches, &c., since wearing it. She wrote: "I procured one of your ElectroBelt for some years, and now have not had a headache since wearing your ElectroBelt. I have not had a single attack of headaches, &c., since wearing it." We wish to impress upon our readers that the Medical Battery its wonderful curative effects. The Company's consulting officers are only obliged to do so in cases of any questions on the subject. The medical advice of our consulting officers is always given with respect to the patient, and with due consideration of all the circumstances. The fact is that the majority of obstinate maladies are more easily cured by Mr. Harness's ElectroBelt than by any other method of treatment. We wish to impress upon our readers that the Medical Battery Company are the only authorized vendors of your ElectroBelt, and that you should be addressed to Mr. C. B. Harness, President of
