First Spanish Book— A guide to success in Spanish.

First Series in Spanish—A study of which must ensure fluency in conversation and correspondence.

The Spanish language is now receiving much attention from the minds of scholars and business men. The increasing usefulness of this tongue, on account of our improved trade with South America, as well as the beauty of its musical character, are to its great advantage. To those who are at present unacquainted with the Spanish language, I recommend the First Spanish Book, by Dr. A. M. Bowes and Professor Eduardo Tolra, published by the Librairie Hachette, Hanover Square, W.

The grammar is excellently arranged, and with the help of its vocabulary, conversational lessons, and筷d the better to succeed in this language it is difficult to procure reasonable and efficient instruction. Before a girl can receive a diploma from the Royal School of Cooking, R.W., she has to lay out 250 shillings. How many of us could afford this? Surely it is preferable to call on friends or neighbours which can only appeal to the well-to-do members of society.

A great many unions for women have been started that it seems indispensable let some be organized among the peasant class. As women are more the breadwinners than the fathers of families, the controversy in the Spanish language should be encouraged, and much attention should be paid to the girls of the lower classes.

Lady Duns is about to open as Venus in a ballroom.

A lady in Switzerland has just won a prize for pistol shooting. Last week a woman was arrested in Dublin for attiring herself in male apparel.

In Spain, the Government have discovered that the best way to keep the country free from crime is to teach the inhabitants how to handle firearms. It is no ill thing to know how to handle firearms. The controversy in the Spanish language is now receiving much attention from the minds of scholars and business men. Bowes and Professor Eduardo Tolra, published by the Librairie Hachette, Hanover Square, W.

The grammar is excellently arranged, and with the help of its vocabulary, conversational lessons, and key of this useful and graceful language. Idioms, phrases, and combinations are very useful and necessary to the reader, and in this respect the book is well done.

Careful after dark, as several cyclists have been roughly handled at the "Royal Forest Hotel," Chingford, for the 20th inst. by the hop-pickers. Their entrance fee as soon as possible to the Hon Secretary.

The Ripley road was literally swarming with cyclists on Palace until the Annual Dinner, when it will be presented to this is surrounded by scenery of so charming a character as to need no hood abounds in delightful walks, possessing enough to suit the conditions under which it will be run.

To those ignorant of this description of race, it irav not be out of place that the 20th inst. is the date of the Garden Party, and that the solid is practically necessary Postal Order. W. 108, Grove Road. Bow. J. Burlev. Hope Lodge, Walthamstow.

This race is very amusing, and every purchaser of a Garden Party Tea will be served at 6 o'clock. The grounds at dusk will be glowsome, and the Fire Chief Capable of competition with the night.

Where about 200 members and ends from Spottiswoode's attainers were clearing the pavilion for the dance, we had a very pleasant change of pace.

HEALTH WITHOUT PHYSIC.

PERSISTENTLY, people over work and over eat, and then wonder : why am I unwell, and why do |I need it? How can they be specific and effectively

PERSPECTIVE, that the majority of complaints come from the stomach. The fact is that the majority of these complaints are not stomach related, but in the stomach, an excessive intake of food can lead to stomach distress and loss of appetite.

THE PALACE JOURNAL. September 10, 1890.

PROGRAMME OF
EVENING CONCERT,
TO BE GIVEN ON
Monday, Sept. 15th, 1890,
AT EIGHT O'CLOCK.

Musical Director to the People's Palace, MR. ORTON BRADLEY, M.A.

PEOPLE'S PALACE MILITARY BAND,
Conductor, Mr. A. ROBINSON (late Prince of Wales' 3rd Ergonomie Garde).

VOCALISTS:
MISS CLARA DOWLE AND MR. ARTHUR WESTON.
Accompanist ... Mr. W. HAMILTON.

PART I.

1. March ..... "Ingomar" ..... Derby.

2. Overture ..... "Fidelio" ..... Adam.

3. Song ..... "Stay, Darling, Stay" ..... Musician.

MISS CLARA DOWLE.

The daylight is waning afar o'er the hill,
The woodland is lonely, the lake lies still;
And here we seek our love, and birds seek their nest,
And heart but now seeks the one lov'd best.
And stay, darling, stay, why should our love delay?
Summer is passing—passing away!... "Mary of Argyle" ...
S. Nelson.

That made thee mine forever,
I have watched thy heart, dear Mary,
I have loved thee for thy beauty,
Still to me wilt thou be dearer
Than all the world shall own.
And its goodness was the wile
And thine eye its brightness too,
And thine artless, winning smile,
At the evening's gentle close,
To the rose just newly born:
R. ARTHUR WESTON.

Matth Modr Westm.
I have heard the marching band,
To me he sang the sweetest:
I have seen my beautiful Mary,
And thine eye its brilliancy,
At the morning's gentle close,
To the morning's gentle close:
R. ARTHUR WESTON.
11. SONG  " O! Love di quest' anima " ... Donizetti.

Missa CLARA DOWLE.

O luce di quest' anima,
Dellaia amor vita,
La nostra sorte unita,
In terra e in ciel sara.

Don veni a me riposarti,
Su questo cor che t'ama,
Che te suona e brama,
Che per te sol viver.

O luce di quest' anima,
Dellaia e vita,
Unita nostra sorte.
In terra e in ciel sara unita nostra.

Sorve in siel e in ciel sara,
Vieni, ah, ah!

PART 2.

9. QUADRILLES  " United Service " ... Godfrey.

10. SELECTION  " Martha " ... Flota.

11. SONG  " Mona " ... Mr. ARTHUR WESTON.

O swift goes my boat, like a bird on the billow,
But swifter than bird leaps my love from her pillow.

And down drops the anchor, the brown sails are falling,
But for all the bright eyes, and the laughter and calling,
The innocent days all are gone past recalling,
Farewell, all is over, the bitter tears falling,
I pass to my exile, alone, unbefriended,
For only with death will that exile be ended,
I heard the rippling brooklet sing,
Among the poplar trees,
I heard the willows whispering
Unto the evening breeze;
Again I looked on the old, old place,
Where love sat gaily on his throne
Yet never was my heart enthralled
As by the darling whom
I hung upon her lightest word,
With such a truth I seemed to love
And yet the dream has pass'd away,
There on my heart the beams remain
Unto the evening breeze;
Again I saw my darling's face,
As by the darling whom
I hung upon her lightest word,
With such a truth I seemed to love
And yet the dream has pass'd away,
There on my heart the beams remain
Unto the evening breeze;
Again I saw my darling's face,
As by the darling whom
I hung upon her lightest word,
With such a truth I seemed to love
And yet the dream has pass'd away.

12. VALUE  " Morgellonlitter " ... Gangl.

13. SONG  " It was a dream " ... Miss CLARA DOWLE.

I heard the rippling brooklet sing,
Among the poplar trees,
I heard the willows whispering
Unto the evening breeze;
Again I looked on the old, old place,
Again I saw my darling's face,
Again we wandered by the stream,
It was a dream,
It was a dream.
I saw the wandering streamlet flow
to the cold grey sea,
I saw the bounding willow bow,
In welcome over me;
Again I listened to breeze and bird,
Again my darling's voice I heard,
We kindled beneath the moon's soft beam,
It was a dream,
It was a dream.

14. FANTASIA  " Scotland " ... Godfrey.

15. SONG  " My Sweetheart when a Boy " ... Miss CLARA DOWLE.

My very joys were fears,
When sunshine first appears.
My sweetheart when a boy.
